Attorney Fuller had done some editing on the prior edition of the Use Variance Application. Chairman Davidson had some more editing after that. These changes will be reexamined at the next meeting in December after everyone has a chance to review them.

Chairman Davidson stated that while reviewing the Zoning Code he saw parts that may have minor errors. He would like to start a list and present it to the Town Board for inclusion. Attorney Fuller stated that the Queensbury Zoning Board presents a list of changes to their Town Board once a year. The Zoning Code should be a living and breathing instrument to reflect changes that present themselves.
